

THE SURREY OPEN TEAM SQUASH TOURNAMENT FOR PREP SCHOOLS
25th November 2012

Eight teams travelled to Epsom College to enter this prestigious tournament on 25th November, organised by Frankland Squash Matters Ltd, in association with Epsom College.

The teams arrived at Epsom College's fabulous Sports Complex on a crisp Sunday morning and were met by the tournament organiser, Neil Frankland who is the Director of Squash for Surrey.

Each team and their Manager registered at the Tournament Desk to receive their complimentary tournament T-shirt and were directed to the Squash Courts to prepare for the opening matches.

The strength of each team was excellent as always and all of the players showed impeccable etiquette and determination.

The tournament began at 9.30am with each team playing three matches each. Play was then stopped for lunch which was included in the entry and was provided over in the Main Dining Hall of Epsom's Historical building and a short walk across the fantastic grounds was welcome after an exciting morning of play.

Following lunch the afternoon commenced with some fantastic Squash matches played to establish the final positions.

The Teams and results were as follows:
